

The 12th Japan ITS Promotion Forum

Automated Driving Systems

Hajime Amano

Chair, SIP-adus International Cooperation Working Group

ITS Japan

February 28, 2018

<Translated Version>

Joint Program: The Cabinet Office's Cross-ministerial Innovation Promotion Program (SIP) and ITS Japan

Part 1

- SIP-adus Overall Progress Report
Report from the Cabinet Office : Yoshihiro Izawa (Counsellor, Cabinet office)
- SIP-adus Area Reports
Overview of International Cooperation : Takahiko Uchimura (ITS Japan)
Large-Scale Field Operational Tests : Masato Minakata (Toyota Motor Corporation)
Dynamic Map : Satoru Nakajo (University of Tokyo)
Cyber Security : Takashi Imai (Toyota InfoTechnology Center Co., Ltd.)
Pedestrian Traffic Accident Reduction : Hiroyuki Kanemitsu (Toyota Motor Corporation)

Part 2

- Human Factors : Satoshi Kitazaki (National Institute of Advanced Industrial Science and Technology)
- Next Generation Transport : Masayuki Kawamoto (University of Tsukuba)
- Connected Vehicles : Norifumi Ogawa (Mazda Motor Corporation)
- Impact Assessment (Traffic Accident Reduction) : Nobuyuki Uchida (Japan Automobile Research Institute)
- Impact Assessment (Social Impact) : Hiroaki Miyoshi (Doshisha University)
- Q&A

5 Key Issues

1. Dynamic Map

2. Cyber Security

3. HMI

4. Pedestrian Traffic
Accident Reduction

5. Next Generation
Transport

6 International Cooperation Themes

1. Dynamic Map

2. Cyber Security

3. Human Factors

4. Connected Vehicles

5. Next Generation Transport

6. Impact Assessment

